On 18th September 2002, three Romanian Counties (Iași, Neamț, Vaslui) and three Counties from Republic of Moldova (Chișinău, Lăpușna, Ungheni) undersigned in Iași the Protocol on Cross-Border Cooperation of Siret-Prut-Nistru Euroregion (SPNE). In December the same year, Orhei and Soroca Counties (Republic of Moldova) joined also the recently established Euroregion.

SPNE mission is to develop and strength the relationships among the communities and local authorities, in diferrent fields of activity, in order to assure the sustainable development and the compliance with the European standards.

The first Forum of Euroregion's Presidents carried on in Ungheni (Republic of Moldova), on 4th December 2002, adopted the SPNE Statute establishing as operational structures:

- Presidents' Forum (political decision-making level)
- Standing Secretariate and Working Groups focused on specific fields of activity (executive level).

After the year 2003, when the new territorial-administrative organisation of the neighbour country occurred, SPNE continued to extend. With a total area of 37 383 km² and a total population of 3 864 989 inhabitants, SPNE currently it includes 29 members:

-3 Romanian Counties (Iași, Prahova)

- 25 Districts (out of 32) from Republic of Moldova (Ialoveni, Anenii Noi, Basarabasca, Călărași, Căușeni, Cimișlia, Criuleni, Drochia, Dubăsari, Fălești, Florești, Glodeni, Hâncești, Leova, Nisporeni, Orhei, Rezina, Rîșcani, Sîngerei, Soroca, Șoldănești, Ștefan Vodă, Strășeni, Telenești, Ungheni).

- Bălți Municipality and Autonomous Territorial Unit of Găgăuzia (Republic of Moldova).

In 2005 was set up the Association „Siret-Prut-Nistru Euroregion”, legal person in charge with the implementation of cross-border events and cooperation projects, as well as with funds management.
